

Attracting, Hiring and Retaining High Quality Team Members

10 Tips for Successful Hiring and Long Term Retention

In today's competitive dental marketplace, finding and keeping the key players in your practice is crucial. Having team members who understand your vision, live your values and love your patients the way you do, will take your practice to the next level. Attendees of this lecture will be able to master key skills such as:

- Attracting quality applicants
- Saving time with group interviews
- Asking the "right" interview questions
- Training new employees successfully
- Motivating employees to become long term contributors

Join us in the fast paced, informative and entertaining workshop designed to take your practice to the next level!